

Workshop on Reducing Water & Recovering Heat

November 16, 2016, 9:00 AM – 2:00 PM

At Radisson Blu Dhaka Water Garden

Bangladesh PaCT is organizing a half-day workshop for the textile and garment sector on 'Reducing Water & Recovering Heat', in collaboration with the Textile Technology Business Center (TTBC), to showcase the economic and environmental significance of water use reduction and waste heat recovery in the textile and garment sector.

Event Highlights

- Keynotes: Leading industry experts present strong business cases for water use reduction and waste heat recovery in the textile and garment sector-market scenario, successful cases, costs, and benefits
- Latest Technologies:
 - Discussion on Nano Dye technology which can reduce up to 75% water usage in the dyeing process.
 - Presentation on vertical Exhaust Gas Boilers.
 - Discussion on Incineration Boilers
- Investment Opportunities: Renowned expert Dr. Brahmanand Mohanty will present on resource efficient financing opportunities in the textile sector.
- Factory Experience: Fakhruddin Textile Mills Ltd. and Fakir Apparels Ltd. will share real life experience with resource efficient technologies and financing opportunities.
- Panel discussion and More!

Implementing Partner:

Sponsored by:

Organized by:

MEGATEK
Engineering Pte Ltd

SmartTech pvt. Ltd.
COMPLETE SOLUTION FOR APPAREL INDUSTRY

Contact:

TTBC Helpdesk  +880 1714 166142  sshabab@ifc.org

For more information please visit www.textilepact.net